The Clarice Pears building Topping Out Ceremony, June 2021

Welcome to our July update

Site Progress

- Ceilings, light installation and final decoration works are ongoing internally at the Advanced Research Centre.
- Upgrade works are now underway at the east end of University Avenue opposite the Wellington Church. Once complete the works area will move to the other carriageway.
- The Adam Smith Business School broke ground this month and piling works have commenced which will complete in August. We will then begin groundworks and the concrete frame.
- Two tower cranes will be erected for the project at the end of summer and will be in place until late 2022.
